Our Services

Our principal business is to provide advice and arrange transactions on behalf of clients in relation to mortgages, life assurance, pensions, and prsa's (underwritten by insurance undertakings).

Mortgages

Through the lenders or other undertakings with which we hold an agency, the firm can provide advice on and arrange mortgage products from the following range: fixed-rate mortgages, variable rate mortgages, capital & interest mortgages, interest only mortgages, endowment mortgages, pension mortgages and residential investment property mortgages.

The firm provides mortgage advice on a fair analysis basis (providing services on the basis of a sufficiently large number of contracts and product producers available in the market to enable the firm to make a recommendation, in accordance with professional criteria, regarding which contract would be adequate to meet your needs). The firm currently holds appointments with the following lenders:

- KBC Bank Ireland plc
- Permanent TSB plc
- Haven Mortgages Limited
- Finance Ireland Credit Solutions DAC
- Dilosk Limited t/a Dilosk and ICS Mortgages
- Seniors Money Mortgages (Ireland) DAC t/a Seniors Money
- Affinity Mortgages Limited
- Bank of Ireland t/a The Mortgage Store
- Avant Card DAC

We will need to collect sufficient information from you before we can offer any advice on housing loans. This is due to the fact that a key issue in relation to mortgage advice is affordability. Such information should be produced promptly upon our request.

It is important that you and all of the parties in this transaction advise us of all material facts concerning your circumstances. A material fact is one which is likely to influence us in our assessment and recommendations relating to your application for revised repayment terms. If you are in doubt as to whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed.

Life & Pensions

The firm provides life assurance and pensions advice on a fair analysis basis (providing services on the basis of a sufficiently large number of contracts and product producers available in the market to enable the firm to make a recommendation, in accordance with professional criteria, regarding which contract would be adequate to meet your needs).

We provide advice on the following product providers:

Aviva Life Assurance Company

New Ireland Assurance Company plc

Irish Life Assurance plc

Royal London Life Assurance Company

Zurich Life Assurance Company

Non-Life -Income Protection

The firm provides income protection policies on a fair analysis basis i.e. providing services on the basis of a sufficiently large number of contracts and product producers available on the market to enable us to make a recommendation, in accordance with professional criteria, regarding which contract would be adequate to meet your needs.

Permanent Health Insurance (Income Protection)

In relation to permanent health insurance policies it is our policy to explain to you a) the meaning of disability as defined in the policy; b) the benefits available under the policy; c) the general exclusions that apply to the policy; and d) the reductions applied to the benefit where there are disability payments from other sources.

Serious Illness

In relation to serious illness policies, we will explain clearly to you the restrictions, conditions and general exclusions that attach to that policy.

House Insurance

The firm currently refers house insurance requests to Brian Mullins Insurance Brokers once we have client consent to do so.

Disclosure of Information – All Products

It is important that you ensure that all information provided on proposal forms, application forms, statement of facts and any other documentation relevant to the service being provided to you is complete and accurate. If you are in doubt as to whether information is relevant or not, please disclose it to us. Failure to disclose any material information could invalidate your cover and could mean that all or part of a claim will not be paid.

Remuneration

The firm is remunerated by commission and other payments from product producers, or lenders on the completion of business. You may choose to pay in full for our services by means of a fee.

Where we receive recurring commission, this forms part of the remuneration for initial advice provided and also for the ongoing management of your policy.

Where we receive commission from a product provider and charge a fee, we do not offset the commission against the fee.

Mortgages

We can receive up to 1% in certain circumstances. Commission can be clawed back by the lender within a three year period.

Life Assurance

In respect of life assurance the firm may receive commission and other payments from the insurance companies to whom orders are transmitted. Summary details of these payments will be included in a quality information document, which you are legally entitled to receive before an application for a product is completed, and full details will be included with your cooling off letter.

Pensions

As levels of commission vary between Insurers, we will advise clients in advance of any new contract, the exact commission rates payable by the Insurer selected prior to effecting the policy.

Non-Life Remuneration

The firm is remunerated by commission from insurers on completion of business. Details of this remuneration are available on request.

Fees

In certain circumstances it will be necessary to charge a fee for services provided. Additional fees may be payable for complex cases or to reflect value, specialist skills or urgency or you may choose to pay in full for our service by fee. Where fees are chargeable or where you choose to pay in full for our service by fee, we will notify you in writing in advance and agree the scale of the fees to be charged if different from fees outlined.

Unless stated all fees are payable within 14 days of invoice issued date.

We do not charge an initial tele – consult fee.

Regular Reviews

It is in your best interests that you review, on a regular basis, the products which we have arranged for you. As your circumstances change, your needs will change. You must advise us of those changes and request a review of the relevant policy so that we can ensure that you are provided with up to date advice and products best suited to your needs. Failure to contact us in relation to changes in your circumstances or failure to request a review, may result in you having insufficient insurance cover.

Conflicts of interest

It is the policy of our firm to avoid conflicts of interest in providing services to you. However, where an unavoidable conflict of interest arises we will advise you of this in writing before providing you with any service.

Default on payments by clients

Our firm will exercise its legal rights to receive payments due to it from clients (fees and insurance premiums) for services provided. In particular, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, the firm will seek reimbursement for all payments made to insurers on behalf of clients where the firm has acted in good faith in renewing a policy of insurance for the client.

Product producers may withdraw benefits or cover in the event of default on payments due under policies of insurance or other products arranged for you. We would refer you to policy documents or product terms for the details of such provisions.

Mortgage lenders may seek early repayment of a loan and interest if you default on your repayments. Your home is at risk if you do not maintain your agreed repayments.

Complaints

We ask that you make any complaint against our firm, relating to services provided by us, in writing. We will acknowledge your complaint within 5 business days and we will fully investigate it. On completion of our investigation, we will provide you with a written report of the outcome. In the event that you are still dissatisfied with our handling of or response to your complaint, you are entitled to refer the matter to the Financial Services Ombudsman or the Pensions Ombudsman. A full copy of our complaints procedure is available on request.

Compensation Scheme

We are members of the Investor Compensation Scheme operated by the Investor Compensation Company Ltd. See below for details.

Investor Compensation Scheme

The Investor Compensation Act, 1998 provides for the establishment of a compensation scheme and the payment, in certain circumstances, of compensation to certain clients (known as eligible investors) of authorised investment firms, as defined in that Act.

The Investor Compensation Company Ltd. (ICCL) was established under the 1998 Act to operate such a compensation scheme and our firm is a member of this scheme.

Compensation may be payable where money or investment instruments owed or belonging to clients and held, administered or managed by the firm cannot be returned to those clients for the time being and where there is no reasonably foreseeable opportunity of the firm being able to do so.

A right to compensation will arise only:

- If the client is an eligible investor as defined in the Act; and
- If it transpires that the firm is not in a position to return client money or investment instruments owned or belonging to the clients of the firm; and
- To the extent that the client's loss is recognised for the purposes of the Act.
